AIMEE PHILLIPS – PLAYER PROFILE

I. BIOGRAPHY

Aimee Phillips is a New Zealand professional soccer player from New Zealand. Phillips started her playing career in the New Zealand National League with Mainland Pride in 2006 (aged 15). In 2013 and 2014, Phillips helped lead Mainland to back-to-back national championships while also winning the league's Golden Boot. Following the 2014 season, Phillips played for Northern Football Federation where she helped lead her team to the 2015 National Championship. Phillips returned to Mainland Pride in 2016 and in 2017 and helped lead Mainland to another national championship.

Along with playing in the New Zealand National League, Phillips has also spent time with teams in the New Zealand Regional Premier Leagues. Since 2013, Phillips has scored 114 goals in 108 matches while suiting up for Eastern Suburbs AFC, Forrest Hill AFC, and Western AFC. Phillips won the league's Golden Boot in 2017 after scoring 16 goals in only 10 appearances.

In addition to her club success, Phillips has excelled as a member of the New Zealand Women's National Team. Phillips first got called up to the full New Zealand Women's National team in 2015 and made appearances during the Brazil Tour, 2015 Algarve Cup, and Netherlands Tour. In 2017, Phillips suited up for her home country during the Cyprus Cup and USA Tour. Most recently in March 2019, Phillips played 2/3 games in the All Nations Cup in Australia bringing her cap status to 8 caps (1 goal) for her country.

In February 2018, Phillips moved to Serbia to play for ZFK Spartak (Champions of Serbia). In her warm-up games for the club she made an assist against ŽNK Osijek and scored against DVTK Miskolc. In the Serbian Superliga she scored 6 goals in (9 games) and helped lead Spartak to the Championship; she scored goals that were game changers for Spartak.

In June 2018, Phillips moved to Cardiff, Wales to represent Cardiff Met Ladies in the Champions League Qualifying games in Ukraine. Phillips played full games of 90 minutes, assisted 2 times and scored a goal. She was a dangerous attack for the Welsh side.

At the end of August, due to Cardiff Met Ladies not proceeding through to the 32 of the Champions League, Phillips moved to Jena, Germany. She made 9 appearances in The Bundesliga 2, Germany for FF USV Germany.

In February 2019, Phillips joined the Northern Tigers to play in Sydney, Australia. She is currently playing in the NPL until August this year.
